

Historical Society of Clarendon VT

November 21, 2019 6PM Town Hall

This meeting consisted of an interesting talk by Matt Rockwell and discussion with the audience on the history of railroads that ran through Clarendon. Matt brought a number of artifacts from his collection as part of his talk and for the audience to examine. A YouTube video of the presentation made by Phil Mandolare can be found in the Newsletters and Presentations collection.

Seventeen people were in attendance.

The December 19th meeting will primarily be a Board discussion about the Chippenhook Schoolhouse.
